October 1927

Wednesday 19

Weather fine Self & Wallie putting potatoes into Root House & Cellar McDermott passed up on a Canoe at Noon A Chinook Boat passed about 6 P.M. Anvil left again for the Crossing this is his last trip

Thursday 20

Started to snow this Morning and continued Heavy all day, the last boat load Vegetables in the Cellar Started Raining towards evening and Cleared up a little Weather Mild

Friday 21

Cold with Fog all day Cleared up towards evening Self went to Pink Creek 2 Teams loading up Freight for Big Creek Johnny going with them to Hanbury Crossing left this morning fell about 2 in Snow on the hill Mail arrived This evening

Saturday 22

Cold & Foggy in Morning but Cleared up towards Noon Self finished putting all our Vegetables and potatoes into the Root house & Cellar Started Planing on after noon Johnny left for Big Creek Pink Lizette & Chargeur Snow nearly all gone

Source: British Columbia Archives
Call Number: MS-749 Box: 3 File: 16