

Dec 1929

Tuesday 24

Very Mild this morning but changed to a regular blizzard in afternoon and very cold with a strong north wind. I and Willie went up to the P.O. in afternoon.

Wednesday 25

Whitmas day a fine clear day we had 3 Beckwith & the McLevils for dinner. Mrs Taylor & 3 of her children came up for a visit this evening and stayed for the night.

Thursday 26

a fine mild day Willie hauled a few loads of fire wood. Self cut some wood. The Taylors left for home at noon. Started to blow a strong west wind this evening, very mild.

Friday 27

a fine mild day blowing a strong west wind. but not thawing. Willie took Margaret home this morning and he got back this evening. Margaret got sick on the way home. The roads very bad drifted over with snow. I was busy sawing fire wood.
