

January 1934

Sunday 3

fine and mild this morning wind shifted to north east towards evening and started to snow and blowing a strong wind

Monday 4

very cold and stormy blowing a cold N.E. wind with snow angus and 6 Indians arrived from Sukkima this evening

Tuesday 5

12 below this morning, cold all day I drove over with angus to see the Indians and also to the Police Barracks the Indians killing very little fire

Wednesday 6

10 below this morning but fine all day I drove over to the Police Barracks along the 6 Indians who came in with angus everything was ok
